A REMARKABLE TREE
The Fluid Distilled From It Heals and Soothes the Skin

Along the shores of the Mediterranean Sea, on stony hillsides and in waste places, grows a small, common prickly cedar tree (see picture) that scientists call Juniperus oxycedrus.

From the heartwood of this tree is distilled a brownish liquid having a distinct odor somewhat resembling tar. For hundreds of years the peasants of Spain, France and Northern Africa have used this fluid to treat skin diseases both of man and of sheep, horses and other domestic animals.

In more recent times this fluid was called Oil of Cedre, and the Medical Profession throughout the world employed it in treating eczema and many other skin troubles. It possesses remarkable healing, soothing and curative properties when applied to the skin, and seems to have been intended by Nature for this particular purpose. Oil of Cedre, combined with other medicinal drugs, is used in making Cedure Ointment, the new skin remedy. It stops itching as soon as it is applied and begins the healing process immediately. If you have pimples, eczema or skin irritation of any kind, get a 25c. box of Cedure

Ointment today from your druggist.

Probably the brownish fluid from this remarkable tree is the very thing your skin requires to be made well.

This ball was more complicated by those boys to get away with the boy who wouldn't let them play with them," Justice Collins said. "They should no more be charged with larceny than a man or woman who confabulates a ball that bounds into a front yard."

IF BOY GRABS BASEBALL IS HE REALLY A THIEF?

Brooklyn Justice Tries Hard to Have Charge Reduced, but the Complainant is Relentless.

What constitutes the theft of a baseball? This was the weighty question with which Justice Collins wrestled more than an hour yesterday in the Children's Court, Brooklyn.

C. J. Allen, physical director of the Polytechnic Institute, was complainant against Karl Wegenar and David Kane, each fifteen. He said the pair had stolen a ball from the school field and broken up a game.

"I caught them a mile before I caught them," he added.

Justice Collins said the charge should be reduced from larceny to disorderly conduct. Prof. Allen was insistent, and the boys will be tried.

The Justice talked for five minutes on the right of public schoolsboys to minor thefts, and C. J. Cade, combined with other medicinal drugs, is used in making Cedure Ointment, the new skin remedy. It stops itching as soon as it is applied and begins the healing process immediately. If you have

pimples, eczema or skin irritation of

any kind, get a 25c. box of Cedure

Ointment today from your druggist.

BRANDEIS VOTE DELAYED.

Republicans in Committee Say He Shouldn't Be on Bench.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The Senate Judiciary Committee postponed definite action yesterday on the nomination of Louis D. Brandeis for the Supreme Court until Monday, when a full attendance of the committee is expected. The Lenox assignment case was debated, and the Republican members of the committee concluded that the action of Mr. Brandeis in that case makes him unfit for the Supreme Court. They charged him with duplicity.

Senator Walsh defended the conduct of Mr. Brandeis. He declared he did nothing to injure his guilty or guilty of double dealing. He thought he represented the creditors in the Lenox case. Senator Austin of Arizona, irritated by the Republican debate in committee, withdrew.

The Republican members of the committee are filibustering on the Brandeis nomination, he said. "They are attempting to delay action until after the national conventions."

No attempt has been made to get a vote on the absence of Senator Shields, Democrat, who is in Tennessee at the funeral of a brother.
